- E. SESSION SUMMARY

There will be a fire at a museum or memorial which has marble statues of our fore fathers.

An air plane crash will occur over the ocean this week.

Disappointment will be expressed over Clinton's choice of cabinet members and the decisions they will try to incorporate into the system.

Chinese foreign policy issues will be discussed and debated for future planning.

It will be emphasized once again how fragile the U.S. economy truly is, forcing people to adopt the attitude that they would rather hold on to their money and not spend it, thus continuing to stifle the economic cycle.

Animal rights activists and their pursuits become headlines this week protecting the interests of ecology.
